WHERE IS JODIE?

Jodie, the jolly little puppy, was nowhere to be found. Allie looked in her doghouse. No Jodie. She called and called. She whistled and whistled. No Jodie.

Allie rode her bike to her friend Molly's house. Jodie liked Molly and might have gone to play with her. No Jodie.

Allie was very scared. Jodie was just a jolly little black puppy. Where could she be? Allie rode home and was very sad.

Allie rode into the yard and heard a small bark. She looked up and there was Jodie sitting on the steps with mom. Allie ran to Jodie and picked her up and held her tight. She was so happy to see Jodie. Allie's mom said, "Jodie has been looking all over the house for you." Jodie had been inside all the time.
